Addis in Brixton is a coffee shop based in Brixton Market. Founded by coffee enthusiasts Yanet and Greg, both with a wealth of knowledge and experience in Ethiopian hand-roasted coffee. Our mission is to source, roast, and specialise in high-grade organic coffee, served in an authentic and traditional setting that reflects Ethiopian culture and original art.

We traditionally hand roast our coffee in small batches to bring out the best in the coffee. Once roasted, it is rested and packed to ensure premium freshness and flavour. We are as passionate as we are rigorous about our coffee, nothing leaves our shop until it reaches our high standards.

Whether you enjoy a cup on the go from our shop or purchase a pouch of freshly ground or hand-roasted beans for you to enjoy at home or in the office.

Addis in Brixton Kitchen offers a delicious range of seasonal, flavour-rich, traditional Ethiopian vegan food.

We pride ourselves on excellent service and traditional Ethiopian hospitality where a smile goes a long way in business.
